Hello everyone,

I'm just a random dude on the internet who loves manga. So since this manga didn't seem to get updated i decided to try it myself but only from spanish to english. I don't know spanish so i used a translator so it might be badly translated. And english isn't my main language either so there may be some bad sentences in there

I only translated the balloons(i think it's called?) so i sometimes wrote text beside the image cause i didn't want to ruin the artwork.

All in all a crappy translated manga but i hope you will enjoy it nontheless ps i might continue translating it (in my own crappy way ^^)

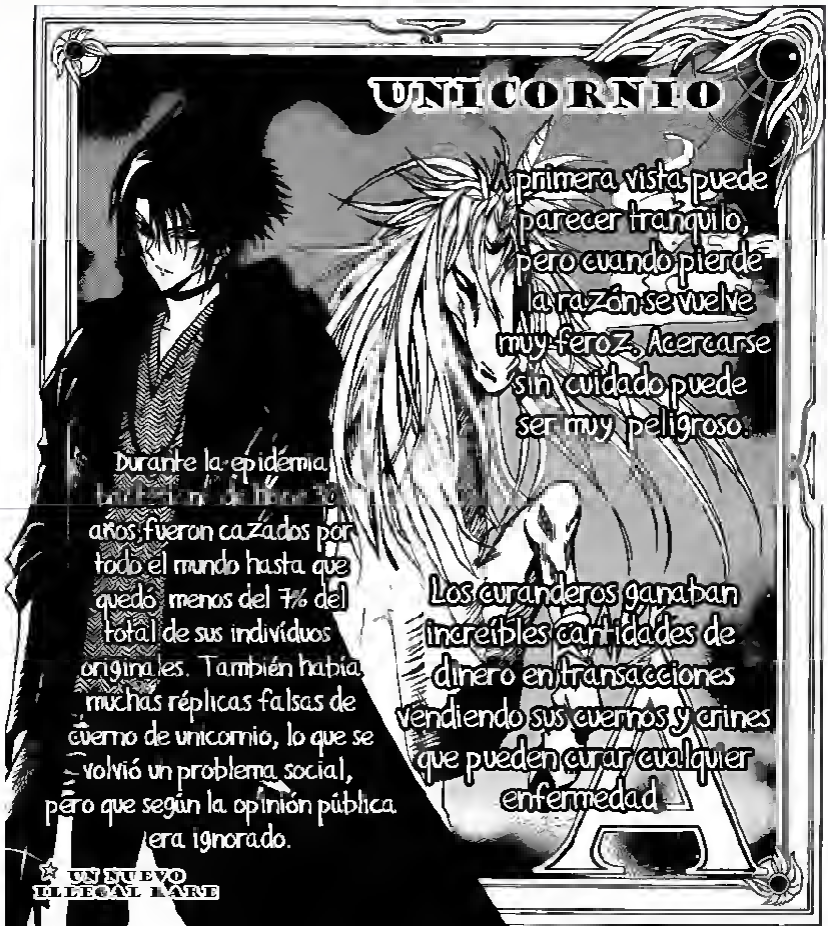
At first glance he may seem quiet, but when he loses his reason he becomes very fierce. Approaching without care can be very dangerous.
During the bacterial epidemic 30 years ago, they were hunted by the world until there were less than 7% remaining. There were also many false replicas of Unicorn Horns, which became a social problem, but the public opinion was ignored.
Healers earned incredible amounts of money in transactions and selling its horns and Mane that can cure any disease.



UNICORNIO
A primera vista, puede parecer tranquilo, pero cuando pierde la razón se vuelve muy feroz. Acercarse sin cuidado puede ser muy peligroso.
Durante la epidemia bacterial de hace 30 años fueron cazados por todo el mundo hasta que quedó menos del 7% del total de sus individuos originales. También había muchas réplicas falsas de cuerno de unicornio, lo que se volvió un problema social, pero que según la opinión pública era ignorado.
Los curanderos ganaban increíbles cantidades de dinero en transacciones vendiendo sus cuernos y crines que pueden curar cualquier enfermedad.

Who's that...?
He's completely dressed in black...
Seems suspicious... We should call the police.

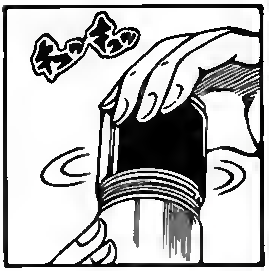
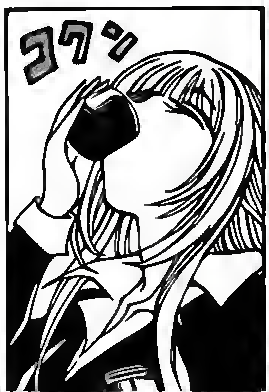
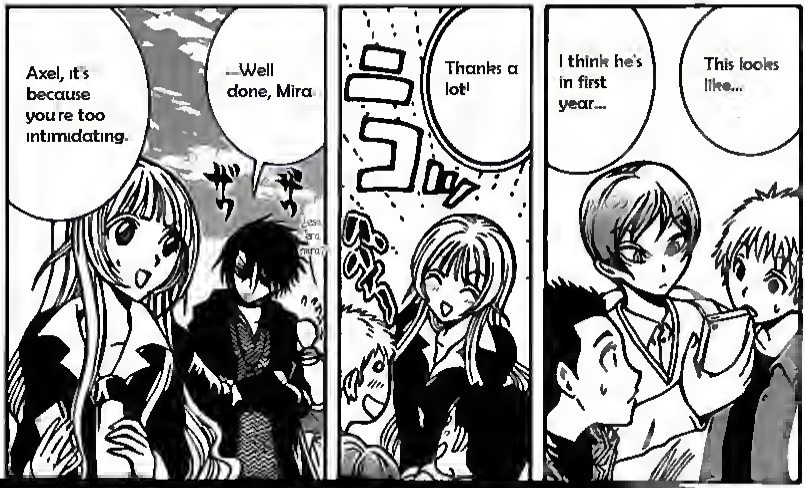
Axel

Miembro del departamento de crímenes anti-raze. Como rey de los vampiros negros, su objetivo es liberar a sus camaradas cazados.





Do you have a minute?
Is the boy in the video at this school?



Mira
This looks like...
I think he's in first year...
Thanks a lot!
...Well done, Mira
Axel, it's because you're too intimidating.

What is this?
Everyone take a look at this.
Ah, really?
Really

It's a collection of pictures of Rares!!
Everyone is talking about it at the school.
A site to share videos, Grandpa
but some of them are real.
Note that more than half of them are fake
...?
Seriously...?
Look.
The... normal people?
Exactly. That happens with normal people
One way or another, everyone admires the power of the rares.

A horn grew on this boy and he stabbed the girl with it
That is what they say after seeing this photo, which was taken on a whim, but
It certainly looks like a unicorn horn...
Suddenly... grown...
...It looks real...
the truth is that during a game of dodgeball, the horn must have grown as a defensive instict

Fukumen
Does this have something to do with the unicorn that's on the loose...?
He fled!
But they have already caught his face!
Kawasaki
Kawasaki we will do the same with the teachers
Axel, Mira, you will interrogate the students of the school about these images.
That is what we are going to investigate.
Eh?
Isn't this harassment?
Are we going, Kawasaki?
These kids have no manners.
Fukumen will never fail
Alone however he might not succeed.
In addition, if you're there there won't be any problems...
You will understand very soon
Why do I have to take Mira with me? Isn't it going to be dangerous?
I have faith in you, Axel
I guess so

Why did this happen to me...?
Why?
I suddenly get this...
Whenever my head hurts...
Are... are they going to kill me?
Does this happen with all Rares...?
I can't go down the street...
What will become of me now?
No, I told no one...
Dad...
Mom...

Ah, Juke
He is a pretty honest guy
That girl over there
Who is this girl-friend?
He had a girlfriend and everything
He was sort of the leader of our class
Hey, can I ask you a question?
She was also in the images
Are you going out with Juke?

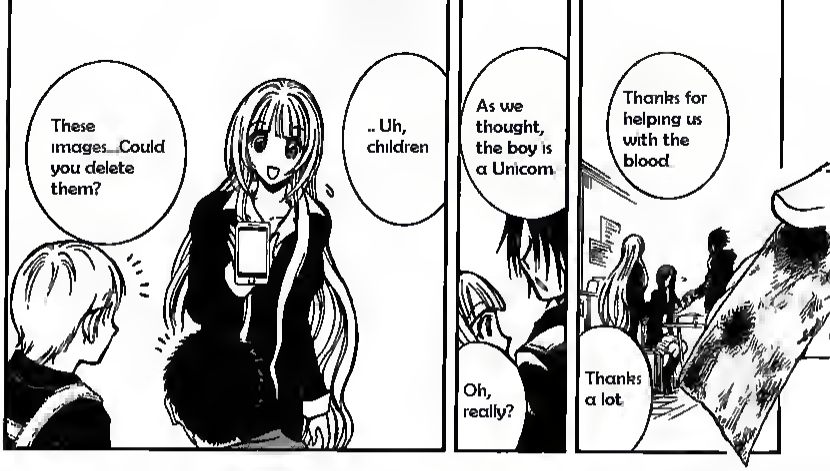
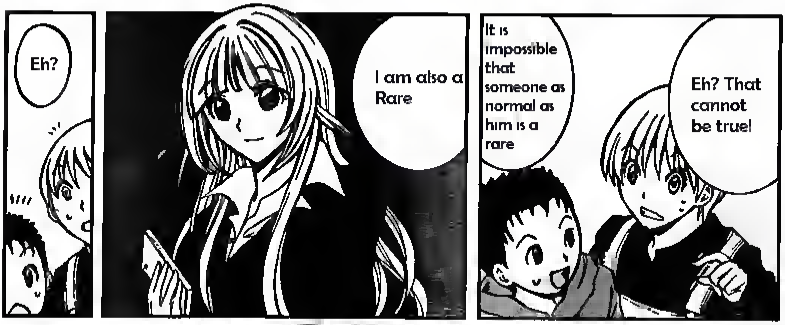
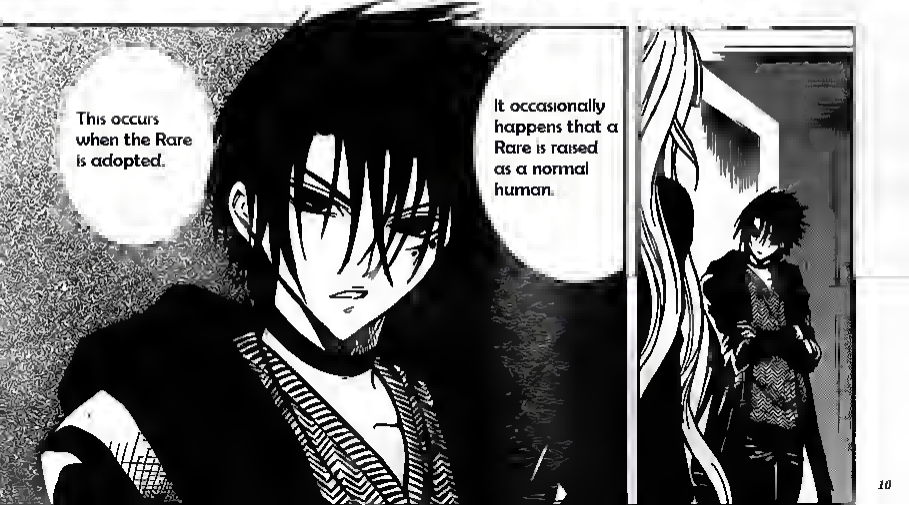
ブル
ブル…
Don't worry about it, okay?
Calm Down



These images...Could you delete them?
.. Uh, children
As we thought, the boy is a Unicorn
Oh, really?
Thanks for helping us with the blood
Thanks a lot

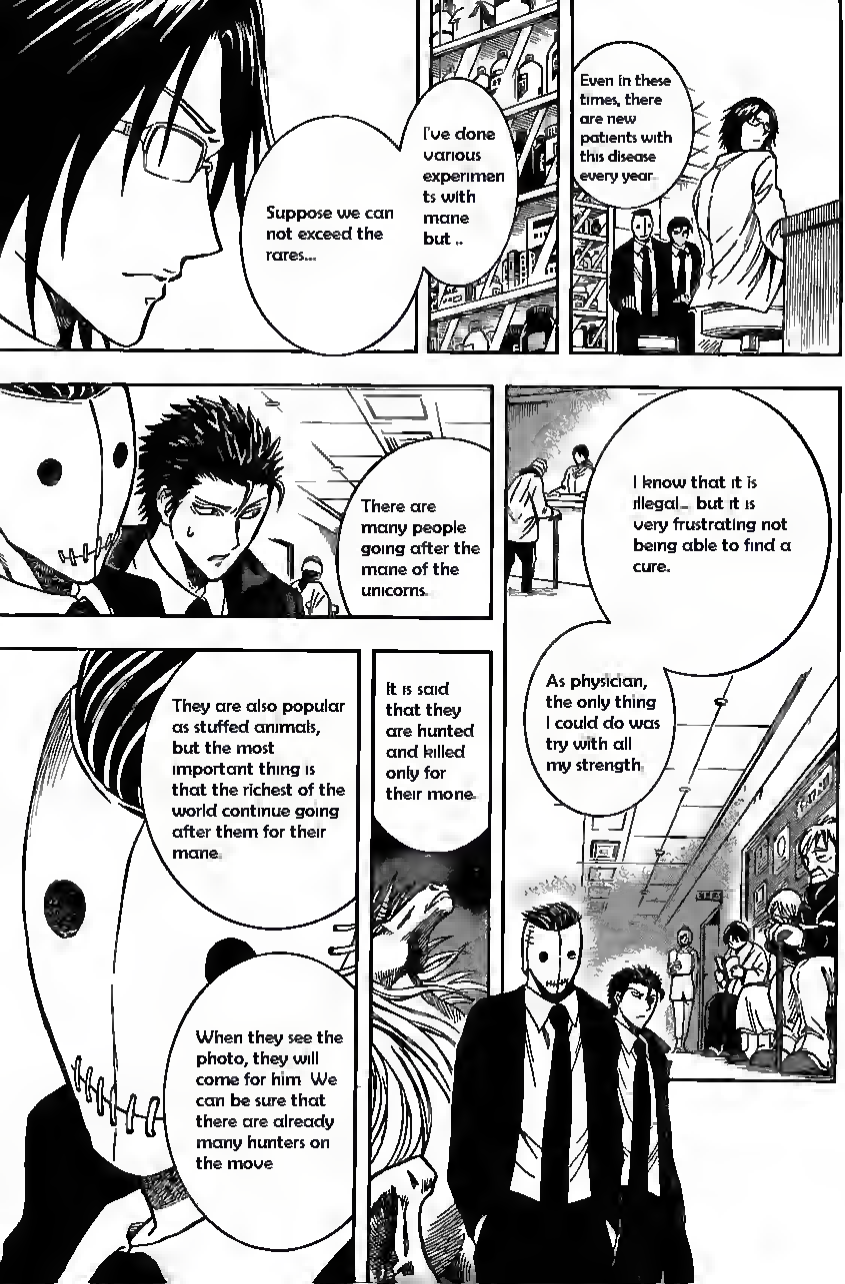


Eh?
I am also a Rare
It is impossible that someone as normal as him is a rare
Eh? That cannot be true!

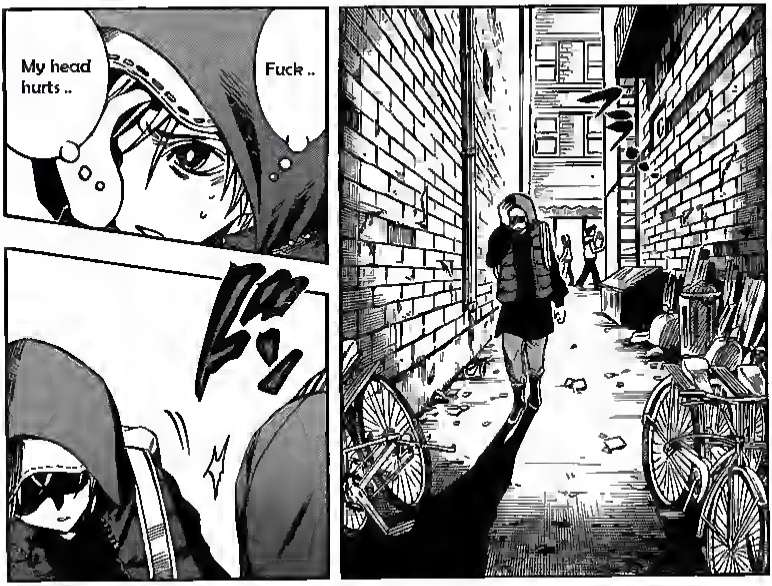


This occurs when the Rare is adopted.
It occasionally happens that a Rare is raised as a normal human.

Axel
We have to hurry up and find him
This boy is somewhere out there
Of course.
I have heard that there is a deadly disease that can only be cured with the mane of a Unicorn
Is that true?
Yes... The fever of Bores
Hospital



Even in these times, there are new patients with this disease every year.
I've done various experimen ts with mane but ..
Suppose we can not exceed the rares...
I know that it is illegal... but it is very frustrating not being able to find a cure.
As physician, the only thing I could do was try with all my strength.
There are many people going after the mane of the unicorns.
It is said that they are hunted and killed only for their mone.
They are also popular as stuffed animals, but the most important thing is that the richest of the world continue going after them for their mane.
When they see the photo, they will come for him We can be sure that there are already many hunters on the move



*Mierda means Shit...

*Like before... *At the end... *My head... *I feel like it will explode! *I will end up hurting someone... *If so, I'm going to...

Eh...?

Hiiiii!!
Uwaaaa!!
Help!!

Have you gone nuts?
I'm sorry, but then I have no choice but to treat you like a horse
Oh, you were here
Axel!!

Hooo, hooo. What a most problematic guy...
Why don't you calm down?
¡¡Juke se ha convertido en un unicornio!!
*Juke has become a Unicorn!
